ADVENT

From the time the promise was made to have the Messiah come into the world to the time He really came, thousands of years and generations went by while God kept talking to His people, sending them prophets and messengers, signing covenants and so trying to keep His people as close to Him as possible.

All this time was conceived as a time for preparation with repentance and conversion; it was also a time of God's patience, abundant graces and blessings; it was like a voice was crying in the desert; it was like valleys being filled and mountains being lowered. It was a time of great hope.

Our Advent is like the summary of this time of expectation that our ancestors in faith lived, we are reliving their hope and their efforts for penance and conversion, we are getting spiritually ready to celebrate another Christmas; we should not forget the advantage we have: Jesus is already born and has redeemed the world, we are getting ready with the power of His resurrection and the celebration of His sacraments.

ADVENT CANDLE—2nd week — LOVE

Father in heaven, the day draws near when the glory of your Son will make radiant the night of the waiting world. May the lure of greed not impede us from the joy which moves the hearts of those who seek him. May the darkness not blind us to the vision of wisdom which fills the minds of those who find him. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen
