ONE GOD IN THREE

From the fact that the whole of our life in God is made of mysteries, it shouldn't be surprising that one of these mysteries be celebrated with solemnity as we do this Sunday about the Most Holy Trinity.

God's words proclaimed today suggest a celebration of the Trinity highlighting the loving, merciful and gracious presence of God in the lives of His Creatures helping them mend their ways, even sacrificing His only Begotten Son for their sake.

Because of the active presence of the Trinity, the Church has trained us, for most of our prayers, to start them in the name of the Trinity and to end them either exalting the unity of the Trinity or just through the Lord Jesus Christ.

Words, images, comparisons . . . will never satisfy our intellect since Trinity is far beyond our human reach. Let us instead ask God to strengthen our faith and help us believe that nothing is impossible for a God, Creator of heaven and earth, Redeemer of the world and Advocate of His people.

Fr. Cletus

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Boy, eleven years goes fast! I have met so many wonderful people, and experienced their faith, hard work, and commitment to St. Jerome School. I have walked the halls and seen the children excited for learning, celebrating their successes, and their joyful participation in the business of school. I have enjoyed a most dedicated staff of teachers, always striving to improve their craft and do whatever it takes for the students to succeed and grow. I have had the support of the world's best secretary, and many, many more people who give freely of their time, talent and financial support. Most importantly I have witnessed faith that is alive and inspires our children to follow Jesus and do good in the world. St. Jerome is family to me, and family is forever. I have been most richly blessed. Thank you, and may God bless you.
