PENTECOST IN THE AIR

The Holy Spirit is mentioned in each of the Scripture readings this Sunday. Jesus calls Him "another Advocate" who will help disciples not feel orphaned by Jesus' departure. For this Advocate to be at work, disciples need to love Jesus and to keep His commandments, and this will allow them to be part of the Trinity.

Because of the Spirit received and because of their love for Jesus, Apostles and disciples are all busy preaching, working miracles, sharing the gift of the Holy Spirit with all those who recognize Jesus as the Savior and the Risen One, even Samaritans, discriminated and rejected, receive the gift of the Holy Spirit since the Spirit is available to all.

The faith we have, the good we are able to accomplish in our lives, the courage we have to explain the reason for our hope and to suffer with patience for Christian values, they are all fruits of the presence of the Holy Trinity within us.

Fr. Cletus

Congratulations to our Altar Servers.

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Survey Says....

We recently distributed a survey to parents. Here are some of the responses to this question:

"Why do you send your child to St. Jerome School?"

- Small class size
• Faith based education
• Great teachers and staff
• 1st rate, quality education
• Fellowship & support of community
• Children cared for as individuals and considered important
• Diversity
• Parental involvement
• Convenient location
• Moral compass
• Best choice in the area
• Extra instruction from teachers
• Warm & friendly environment
• Students with good manners
• Small town feel in the middle of the city

Just a few of the reasons St. Jerome is a great place to be!
