THE GOOD SHEPHERD

With His very strong desire to be known, understood, loved and followed, Jesus used many images to describe Himself, here are some of them: Wine, Bread of life, Alpha and Omega, Son of Man, Light, Way, Truth, Life, and so on. . . . today Jesus calls Himself the true SHEPHERD Whose voice is leading the sheep.

It is in this spirit that today's Scriptures highlight the unity and communion of all those, though coming from different races, cultures and tongues, have accepted Jesus' calling and have become members of the one Christian family. They gather with joy around Jesus because they believe in the eternal life they get from Him.

Because of the Gospel, Mother Church has made of this Sunday a "World Day of Prayer for Vocations", vocations to the permanent diaconate, the priesthood and the consecrated life because when these vocations are authentic and prosperous, people can more easily enjoy the shepherding of Jesus Himself.

Since today is also Mother's day, it is a golden opportunity for us to celebrate another type of vocation, vocation to "motherhood", vocation which allowed each one of us to be part of this world and for which we thank God and congratulate all the mothers, invoking God's blessings upon them.

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Hello St. Jerome Parish!

Happy Mothers' Day to our St. Jerome moms and all who provide the love and nurturing of a mother.

My husband, Jim, and I got married a little later in life so we had our children in our late thirties. We are currently raising three teenage boys. When I interviewed for the principal position a couple of summers ago, one of the questions was, "What is your goal for the next ten years?" My immediate response was, "to raise good, kind men who know and love God". Being these boys' mom is my greatest joy and sometimes my biggest challenge. It isn't always easy to see the goodness and the kindness in the midst of arguing about chores and wading through messes. Yet, there are many times when I am with them and I can't stop smiling because my heart is so very content. We moms and dads have to give ourselves grace and trust that God's love for our children sustains them when we are challenged.

Around school...
5/15 Grandparents and Special Friends Day begins with 9:45 Mass, then visits in classrooms and our spring program at 11:15-12. Please join us!

Our school continues to attract new students. Please pray for all making school decisions. Please pray that St. Jerome School will continue to grow and prosper.

Gratefully,
Anne Gattman, Principal
